The original party island, the first and many would argue the best. This is the biggest party Island in the South Pacific. Throughout the year it builds its reputation as the place to come and party but for 2 weeks it just goes crazy.

Beachcomber Island is one of the smallest islands in Fiji giving it a very intimate feel. We take about 200 schoolies there for the best times of your life. It may not have the same facilities of the other islands, no golf courses here. What it does have is amazing beaches, beautiful tropical waters and a vibe that is so unique. The bar is awesome, no shoes, just sand in between your toes and the latest tunes being mixed by international DJ's. Water sports and activities for those that want it in the daytime or relax away a lazy day waiting for the big thumping bass to kick in.
