BLT Accommodation

We use a combination of hostels, hotels and cabins on our Westerner2 BLT. Most cabins are multi-share rooms sleeping 4 to 6 people with shared facilities and hostel nights are generally arranged on a single sex, multi-share basis, subject to availability. Where possible we will keep the group together and try to accommodate couples; however twin rooms cannot be guaranteed. A sleeping bag is not required on the trip.

Trek Notes

This tour will now spend 2 nights in Santa Barbara and updates the itinerary published in the 2011 brochure.
